Subject: Donlin Gold Project - No Meeting Today

Greetings everyone,

Sorry for the late notice, but I was out of the office earlier this week. There will NOT be a regular Cooperating Agency Meeting today. There is a meeting today primarily to prepare for the Scoping Meetings. So, Tami and Cindi should participate today.

The next regularly scheduled Cooperating Agency meeting is January 23, which will discuss what was heard at the scoping meetings in Bethel, Aniak, and Crooked Creek.

Save the date! The agency scoping meeting will be held on February 6, which will be half day (1 to 4 pm Alaska Time). Either VTC or webinar format will be provided for remote participants. Start thinking about issues/concerns that you may have regarding the Donlin Gold Project that the Corps should address within the Scope of the EIS, including alternatives to avoid and minimize impacts to resources, additional data needs/gaps and further analysis for this project, etc.

Please provide me with your scoping issues by Friday, February 1. I will compile everyone's issues and provide everyone with an opportunity to review EPA's scoping issues before the meeting on February 6.

Let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks!
